

The AROB27-ISBC7-SWARM5 successfully concluded yesterday with more than 350 presentations and more than 500 participants, most largest number of those since its commence. Thank you all the participants for their wonderful presentations and lively discussion in all the sessions. Thank you prof.Matsuno, program committee chair, for the fascinating conference program and thank you all the staffs and AROB office who made this symposium successful.

Next year, we will have more attractive symposium. I would kindly request you to come again for attending the symposium. We are looking forward to and welcome your participation.
